Correspondents, Protesting, Told Delays Due to Bullets
Cutting Wires.

(By the Associated Press.) ATHENS, Nov. 24 .- Foreign newspaper correspondents went before Demetrios Gounaris, minister of war, and George Rhallis, premier, today and complained that the press censorship established during the Veni-zelos regime, was being continued. The two officials answered that dur-ing fusillades Wednesday and Thursday of last week, bullets cut and injured 18 overhead wire systems, and that this was responsible for all delays. They declared that if the censorship was still in operation it was because some corre-spondents had misrepresented last week's demonstrations by saying they were in favor of the former German emperor. This was declared to be untrue. The two ministers however, promised to remove all censor-ship restrictions. Some correspond-ditions do not improve.

assented to the latter's determination to return to the Greek throne.

EX-PREMIER AWAITS

Venizelos Despondent Over His Crushing Defeat.

PARIS, Nov. 24.—Former Premier Venizelos of Greece is despondent over his defeat at the polls on Nov.

over his defeat at the polls on Nov. 14, and may retire permanently from politics. In any event he will wait definition by the powers of their attitude toward Greece, said Sophocles Venizelos, son of the former premier, to Paris correspondents at Nice.

"My father is disgusted and is despondent," said the young man. "He ponders for hours at a time without saving a word. I do not know what his intentions are, but for the present he is too disgusted with everything to desire to enter politics again. So far as he is concerned, Greece can have the fate she deserves. He will want to know, first of all, what are want to know, first of all, what are the views and intentions of the allies toward Greece before he decides whether to resume his political work."

Reasons for the defeat of the Veniselfst party which have been reported from Athens, were confirmed by young Venizelos.

He said the Venizelists thought they had won and even when they were hopelessly beaten because the rovalists had adopted the ruse of going to te polls wearing Venizelist badges. He declared the principal reason for the defeat was the fact that friends of former King Constantine spent much more money than the Venizelists were aware of. He asserted such methods were repug-nane to the former premier, who refused to fight the campaign by other than the fairest means.
